

Alain Danloy

United Nations Development Programme

Alain Danloy served in the French National Police (1999–2016) as an investigator (financial crimes) before being seconded to the European Union Rule of Law training mission in Baghdad, Iraq (2010–2013) and in UN DPKO Police Division in New York (2013–2016).

In 2017, he was recruited as Investigation Specialist by the Office of Audit and Investigation, UNDP. Since then, he has worked on cases of procurement frauds, sexual misconducts, misrepresentation or thefts in west and Central Africa.

