

SPEAKER PROFILE

Greg Smith

.....
CEO
iRAP

Greg is the Global Programme Director at the International Road Assessment Programme (iRAP), a charity dedicated to preventing serious road crashes which are the leading cause of death for young people worldwide.

Greg works in partnership with governments, multilateral development banks, donors, non government organisations and industry around the world, advocating for safer roads, supporting the use of freely available iRAP tools and resources, developing of policy, and leading iRAP Star Rating for Schools and Training and Accreditation programs. Greg is based in Hanoi, Vietnam, and holds a bachelor degree in civil engineering and masters degree in public policy.

