

SPEAKER PROFILE

Robin Workman

.....
Principal International Consultant
TRL

Robin is an international consultant in road asset management, with 38 years' experience in road maintenance in low-and middle-income countries across five continents. He has specialised in assessing unpaved road condition using satellite imagery and has recently carried out research into new technologies for road condition data collection and analysis.

