SPEAKER PROFILE

Biao Guo

Principal Financing Partnerships Specialist
Asian Development Bank

Biao is responsible for the management of the People's Republic of China's Poverty Reduction and Regional Cooperation Fund. Biao supervised, in the Ministry of Finance (MOF) of China, the implementation of projects financed by WB, ADB, IFAD, NDB, AIIB, EIB and GEF respectively, coordinating the MDBs and local government agencies on issues related to debt service, risk management, disbursement and procurement under the projects. He also monitored TA projects funded by the World Bank in China. Prior to joining ADB, Biao was Deputy Director General of the Center for Evaluation of the World Bank Loan Project of the MOF of China. He started his career in the MOF, dealing with issues on cooperation between China and MDBs since 1992. Biao is a Chinese. He has a post graduate diploma in International Development from the University of Manchester.