SPEAKER PROFILE

Masayoshi Ono

Senior Transport Specialist
Papua New Guinea Resident Mission
Asian Development Bank

Masayoshi Ono is a national of Japan and holds a master's degree in development planning and management from the Nagoya Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University in Japan. Mr. Ono has over 35 years of professional international experience, including 4 years with ADB. He joined ADB in 2022 as an Infrastructure Specialist at Papua New Guinea (PNG) Resident Mission (PNRM) under Pacific Department and later as Transport Specialist under Sector Department I, Transport Office, and was promoted to Senior Transport Specialist in 2024. He has been serving as Country Focal for Transport sector operations in PNG. Prior to joining ADB, he was Deputy Director, Pacific and Southeast Asia 6 Division of Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) and also worked as JICA Advisor/Expert attached to various Governments including Papu New Guinea, Tuvalu, and Rwanda.