SPEAKER PROFILE

Claire Charamnac

Social Development Specialist (Gender and Development)
Asian Development Bank

Claire Charamnac is a Social Development Specialist (Gender and Development) in the Climate Change and Sustainable Development Department at the Asian Development Bank. In this role she focuses on gender and transport, health and women's leadership.

She has over a decade of experience in gender mainstreaming and implementing programs with a focus on women and girls. Prior to joining ADB, she worked for the Gates Foundation, the World Bank Group and Catholic Relief Services in Madagascar and Timor-Leste. She has a B.S. and M.A. in International Politics and Development from Georgetown University.