

SPEAKER PROFILE

Michael Anyala

.....
Senior Transport Specialist
Asian Development Bank

Dr. Michael Anyala serves as the Senior Transport Specialist at the Transport Sector Office of the Asian Development Bank. With a wealth of international experience in the transport sector. His work at the ADB encompasses a range of focus areas, including offering policy guidance, incubating new investment opportunities, developing and disseminating knowledge solutions including the ADB Green Roads Toolkit and the Advancing Transport Leadership Program. His roles includes leading project preparation and implementation, and advancing decarbonization of transport, improving road safety, enabling climate resilience of transport systems, and strengthening infrastructure asset management. Dr. Anyala earned his Ph.D. and Master of Science degrees in Road Management from the University of Birmingham, UK.

