

Nathaniel Robbins

The Global Fund

As an Investigations Manager, Nathaniel Robbins is responsible for leading a team safeguarding the assets and reputation of The Global Fund by investigating fraud and corruption in public health grants. Nathaniel previously led internal compliance investigations at Airbus in Munich and was a Regional Financial Crime Officer with ABN Amro Bank in Singapore.

He started his career in investigations in the Australian Public Service, after graduating with degrees in Law and Political Science from the university of Hobart, Australia. Currently based in Switzerland, he enjoys the outdoors.

