

2025 ASIAN REGIONAL FORUM ON INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES

8-10 OCTOBER | DILIJAN, ARMENIA

LILIA ALEKSANYAN

Senior Country Economist
Sri Lanka Resident Mission
Asian Development Bank

Lilia Aleksanyan is a Senior Country Economist at the Asian Development Bank's Sri Lanka Resident Mission. Her work focuses on macroeconomic outlook analysis, policy advisory, and technical assistance in macro-fiscal and financial policy areas.

Prior to her current role, she served as ADB's Regional Economist for Central Asia, where she led the development of the country partnership strategy for the Kyrgyz Republic. Before joining ADB, Lilia held positions at the French Ministry of Finance and Banque de France, and taught at Sciences Po and the University of the Philippines.

She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from the Paris School of Economics.