SPEAKER PROFILE

Aman Trana

Director General
PPFD
Asian Development Bank

Aman has over 35 years of professional experience in financial management, financial reporting, auditing, compliance, information technology, administration, change management, and governance across multiple multilateral development organizations and the private sector. She led ADB's 2025 procurement reforms to strengthen focus on quality to achieve development outcomes, and was ADB's first Chief Financial Management Officer. Prior to joining ADB, Aman was a Senior Financial Governance Specialist with the International Monetary Fund (IMF), and also worked with the World Bank as a Senior Public Financial Management Specialist in its India and Pakistan offices. She started her career with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) and held progressively senior positions in its Toronto, Singapore, and New York offices. A national of Canada, Aman obtained her Master's degree in International Affairs (Finance) from Columbia University and her Bachelor's degree in Business (Accounting) from the University of Ottawa. She is also a Chartered Professional Accountant. Aman has significant experience working across disciplines and cultures, managing diverse and remote teams, and building collaborative partnerships with boards, senior management, and operational teams to support strategic organizational objectives.
