SPEAKER PROFILE

Felipe Ramirez

Global Urban Mobility Director
World Resources Institute

Global Urban Mobility Director at WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities. Former Secretary of Mobility of Bogotá and former CEO of Transmilenio. Recognized urban and transport expert with global experience leading urban mobility projects across infrastructure, public policy, urban planning, transport policy, operations, and logistics. His expertise includes developing sustainable mobility strategies, enhancing public transport services, and promoting inclusive urban development.