Moe Lene

*Finance Manager
Samoa Ports Authority*

My name is Malaeti'a Moe Toinett Lene, a dedicated finance and business professional from Samoa with over 15 years of progressive experience in accounting, audit, financial management and professional leadership.

I hold a Bachelor of Commerce majoring in Accounting from the National University of Samoa (NUS) and a Master of Business Administration from the University of the South Pacific (USP). I am also a Chartered Accountant and an active member of the Samoa Institute of Accountants, reflecting my commitment to professional excellence and continuous development in the finance profession.

My professional journey began with BDO Samoa, followed by six years with Electric Power Corporation Samoa, where I gained extensive experience across both public and private sector organizations. Since 2018, I have proudly served as Finance Manager for the Samoa Ports Authority. In this role, I have contributed to enhancing financial sustainability, strengthening internal financial systems and supporting long-term infrastructure and development initiatives that are vital to the Authority's infrastructure, maritime services and contribution to Samoa's overall economic growth.
