

2022 Asian Regional Forum on Investment Management of Foreign Exchange Reserves

26 - 27 October 2022 | Singapore

ANNIE LEI WANG

Principal Treasury Specialist
Treasury Department Client Solutions Division
Asian Development Bank

Ms. Lei Wang is a key member of the ADB Treasury Client Solutions Division Local Currency Team. She is involved in developing customized solutions to address ADB borrowing clients' local currency funding needs. She also keeps dialogues with ADB's developing member countries' relevant government offices to identify creative modalities for ADB's participation in supporting derivative market and local capital market development.

Prior to joining ADB, she was Head of Treasury Operations in the Asia-Pacific region for a US based multinational corporation –S. C. Johnson & Sons Inc. She led a team of treasury professionals, established Asia Pacific Regional Headquarters in the Philippines and centralized treasury operations in Asia Pacific region for SCJ. She also led the efforts of streamlining the treasury functions in the region and SAP treasury system integration.

Ms. Wang has a double-major MBA degree in International Finance and Marketing from DePaul University of Chicago, Illinois, USA, and a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of International Business and Economics (UIBE) of Beijing, China. Ms. Wang is a Chartered Finance Analyst (CFA).