Asian Development Bank

John Versantvoort is the Head of the Office of Anticorruption and Integrity (OAI) at the Asian Development Bank (ADB) since December 2017. OAI leads the anticorruption and integrity initiatives of the bank, including investigation and sanctioning of integrity violations, implementation of fraud and corruption prevention measures, and capacity building support to promote good governance in ADB projects and member countries.

John joined ADB as a lawyer in the Office of the General Counsel in April 2007, where he took on progressive levels of technical and managerial responsibilities. Prior to joining ADB, he established a legal practice in Japan for Benelux law and tax advisory firm Loyens & Loeff (2001–2006) and practiced law in the Netherlands for Loyens & Loeff and law firm Allen & Overy / Loeff Claey Verbeke (1995–2001).

John obtained a Master of Laws degree (East-Asian law) from the University of London, and a Master of Laws degree (Dutch civil law) and Master of Arts degree (Japanese studies) from Leiden University in the Netherlands.
