SPEAKER PROFILE

Max Ee

Principal Consultant
SCMi Group LLP

Max is a business consultant with focus on infotech and supply chain management. Based in Singapore, he founded SCMi Group LLP where the clientele included ADB, Islamic Development Bank, World Bank, USAID, and International Trade Center.

He has performed more than 30 consulting studies in Asia, particularly in CAREC region and focuses on corridor development, transport and logistics and digitalization. Recent accomplishments included Middle Corridor assessment (2021-2023), Containerization in CAREC region (2024), Ports Assessment (2024) Corridor Performance Measurement and Monitoring (2020-2025) and Digital Transport Strategy and Roadmap for the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Max holds a Master of Science in Logistics, Graduate Diploma in Systems Analysis and a Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.) 2nd Upper Honours, awarded from National University of Singapore and Nanyang Technological University. He also serves as a Director in the Logistics Academy in Singapore and the Institute of Blockchain Singapore.