United Nations Office of Internal Oversight Services

Suzette Schultz has served as Director of the Investigations Division of the Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) since September 2022. She leads a team of 115 staff across three regional offices—in New York, Vienna, and Nairobi—a surge office in Entebbe, and peacekeeping missions in Bangui, CAR; Juba, South Sudan; and Goma, DRC.

A qualified lawyer and advocate, Ms. Schultz was previously Deputy Prosecutor-General of the High Court of Namibia, where she prosecuted cases for nearly a decade. She joined the United Nations in 2003, taking on various roles, mostly within OIOS and based in diverse locations such as Arusha, Tanzania; Vienna; Entebbe, Uganda; Baghdad, Iraq; and New York, where she has spent most of her UN career.
