

Pascal Saint-Amans

Director

OECD Centre for Tax Policy and Administration (CPTA)

Mr. Saint-Amans is the Director of the Center for Tax Policy and Administration at the OECD since 1 February 2012.

He started at OECD in September 2007 as Head of the International Co-operation and Tax Competition Division in the CTPA. He played a key role in the advancement of the OECD tax transparency agenda in the context of the G20. In October 2009, he was appointed Head of the Global Forum Division, created to service the Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes, a programme with the participation of over 100 countries.

Mr. Saint-Amans graduated from the National School of Administration (ENA) in 1996 and was an official in the French Ministry for Finance for nearly a decade. He held various positions within the Treasury, including heading the supervision of the EU work on direct taxes and overseeing legislation and policy on wealth tax, mergers and spinoffs. He was also the head of tax treaty negotiations and mutual agreement procedures. In this capacity, he participated in the OECD Working Party No. 1 of the Committee on Fiscal Affairs as the delegate for France before being elected Chair of WP1 in 2005. He was also a member of the United Nation Group of Experts on International Co-operation in Tax Matters, becoming a “rapporteur” in 2006. Before leaving government service, he was Deputy Director in charge of litigation at the Direction Générale des Impôts.

Mr. Saint-Amans, a French national, also served as Financial Director of the Energy Regulation Committee and was responsible for the introduction of new electricity tariffs between 1999 and 2002.

Mr. Saint-Amans holds a degree in history from the Institut d'études politiques of Paris.
