

Wednesday, 18 September

3.30pm – 5.00pm	Registration open	Tākina Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
5.30pm – 7.30pm	Mihi Whakatau Welcome Function With official opening of conference by the Minister for Workplace Relations and Safety, Hon Brooke van Velden Sponsored by Duncan Cotterill 	Banquet Hall Parliament

Thursday, 19 September

8.00am – 5.30pm	Registration open/arrival tea & coffee		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
9.00am	Mihi Whakatau Conference opening MC Karen O’Leary Mike O’Brien, HASANZ Chair	Tāwhirimātea A + B
9.10am – 10.00am	Keynote 1: Adorn the bird with feathers so that it may soar Benjamin Hemi & Jodhi Warwick-Ponga	Tāwhirimātea A + B
10.00am – 10.50am	Keynote 2: The non verbal indicators shown by those with violent and/or aggressive intent Scott Taylor, Praesidium Risk and Resilience	Tāwhirimātea A + B
10.50am – 11.20am	Morning tea		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
11.20am – 11.50am	Concurrent session 1
1A: Collaboration		1B: Competence	1C: Champion
Legal update: - Health and safety law reform - Case law – key learnings and insights - WorkSafe’s enforcement strategy Olivia Lund, Duncan Cotterill		Harnessing evidence and knowledge to move to practice Joanne Crawford, Victoria University of Wellington	Keeping our people safe in a dynamic operating environment: New Zealand Police Critical Risk Programme Mel Aitken, NZ Police & Margaret Van Schaik, Van Schaik Health & Safety Solutions
11.50am – 12.00pm	Move between sessions

12.00pm – 12.30pm	Concurrent session 2
2A: Collaboration		2B: Competence	2C: Champion
Delivering the promise of H&S AI technology through customer/vendor collaboration, successful deployment and change leadership Bede Cammock-Elliott, Seedigital AI Limited & Anton Tyers		Work-related suicide in Aotearoa New Zealand: Research and practice John Fitzgerald, WorkSafe NZ	Utilising Exposure Monitoring and Health Monitoring in a Health Risk Assessment Bridgette Jennings, Fletcher Building Corporate
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lunch		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
1.30pm – 2.15pm	CEO Panel Discussion Hosted by the Business Leaders Health and Safety Forum		Tāwhirimātea A + B
2.15pm – 2.25pm	Move between sessions
2.25pm – 2.55pm	Concurrent session 3
3A: Collaboration		3B: Competence	3C: Champion
Collaboration, the secret sauce to advancing musculoskeletal injury prevention in construction with 'Work Should Not Hurt' Stephven Kolose, CHASNZ & Chris Polaczuk CHASNZ		Increasing wellbeing in farmers and growers leads to decreasing accident and injury rates Hugh Norriss Farmstrong and Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand	Championing safety with AI: Transforming safety culture with technology Tane Van Der Boom, Inviol Limited
2.55pm – 3.05pm	Move between sessions
3.05pm – 3.35pm	Concurrent session 4
4A: Collaboration		4B: Competence	4C: Champion
The Whanaungatanga Programme: A Movember funded, frontline led, mental ill-health prevention programme addressing organisational psychosocial hazards for first responders Josh Darby, Fire and Emergency New Zealand		A risk assessment identification key to aid assessor competence Christopher Peace, Victoria University of Wellington	The right tool for the job: Developing resilience among leaders within the construction and oil/gas industry Andy Walmsley, Tools For Your Mind
3.35pm – 4.00pm	Afternoon tea		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
4.00pm – 4.50pm	HASANZ disciplines session		Tāwhirimātea A + B
4.50pm – 5.00pm	Day 1 wrap-up MC Karen O’Leary		Tāwhirimātea A + B
7.00pm - Late	Conference Dinner Sponsored by Health and Safety Connexions Ltd 		Wharewaka Function Centre

Friday, 20 September

8.00am – 4.00pm	Registration open/arrival tea & coffee		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
9.00am – 9.50am	Keynote 4: Economics of Health and Safety Shamubeel Eaquib, Independent Economist		Tāwhirimātea A + B
9.50am – 10.40am	Keynote 5: Collaborating to prevent injury and support recovery at work Megan Main, ACC		Tāwhirimātea A + B
10.40am – 11.10am	Morning tea		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
11.10am – 11.40am	Concurrent session 5
5A: Collaboration		5B: Competence	5C: Champion
Operational Risk Profiling: building deep engagement and collaboration Dan Davis, HSE Global		Mental safety at work - New research and what it means for your organisation Dougal Sutherland, Umbrella Wellbeing	Death by compliance: The benefits of a risk-based approach to health and safety Agnès Khyn, Stantec
11.40am – 11.45am	Move between sessions
11.45am – 12.15pm	Concurrent session 6
6A: Collaboration		6B: Competence	6C: Champion
What we learned from the Accelerated Silicosis Occupational Health Nurse Pilot Heidi Borner, Orange Umbrella Limited		WISE - Empowering women in the health and safety profession Jo Pugh, WISE & Margaret Van Schaik, Van Schaik Health & Safety Solutions	The culturally intelligent safety professional Greg Dearsly, First 4 Safety Limited
12.15pm – 1.30pm	Lunch		Tāwhirimātea Level 2, Foyer
1.30pm – 2.30pm	Government Direction and WorkSafe Update Paula Collins, WorkSafe		Tāwhirimātea A + B
2.30pm – 3.30pm	Keynote 6: Less Friction More Fun Amy Scott		Tāwhirimātea A + B
3.30pm – 4.00pm	Conference Close MC Karen O’Leary Mike O’Brien, HASANZ Chair		Tāwhirimātea A + B