

WARWICK CARTER

Director, Perth South West Metropolitan Alliance

Warwick Carter has led the Perth South West Metropolitan Alliance since 2022, driving regional projects and advocacy across one of Australia's fastest-growing corridors. He brings more than 20 years' experience in town planning, economic development and governance, with senior leadership roles in local government.

A Registered Planner and former President of the Local Government Planners' Association WA, Warwick holds qualifications in Town Planning, Urban Design and Public Sector Management. He also serves on several committees addressing social licence and ESG considerations for major infrastructure projects in Western Australia.