

Catherine Carter

Catherine Carter is the founder and Managing Director of Salon Canberra, an independent platform that brings leaders together from government, business, academia, and the community to explore the issues shaping Canberra and the nation.

Catherine is a senior executive and respected voice in the built environment, with a career spanning property, industry advocacy, and public policy. She has extensive experience working with government and industry on the issues that shape our cities and communities.

An Adjunct Professor at the University of Canberra, Catherine is also an experienced moderator, facilitator, and MC, known for leading informed conversations on public policy, industry, and city-shaping issues.