

Dr Kate Heathcote

Kate is a consultant ENT surgeon in the UK specialised in laryngology. She established the Robert White Centre for Airway, Voice and Swallow in 2015 to provide advanced in-office techniques to patients within the National Health Service. Following her fellowship with Prof Jean-Paul Marie in Rouen France, she has worked to introduce techniques of laryngeal reinnervation globally through courses, conferences and one-on-one mentoring. Kate is a longstanding member of the council of the British Laryngological Association and chairs the committee on dysphagia for the European Laryngological Society.
