

A/Prof Chamara Basnayake

Associate Professor Chamara Basnayake is a gastroenterologist at St Vincent's Hospital Melbourne and Clinical Associate Professor at the University of Melbourne. He leads Victoria's busiest public oesophageal physiology laboratory and co-founded the multidisciplinary Functional Gut Disorders Service. His clinical and research interests focus on oesophageal motility disorders, swallowing disorders, disorders of gut–brain interaction and the translation of multidisciplinary research into improved patient care.