

CHARLEY ELLWOOD

2026 President, ANU Students
Association

Charley Ellwood is the 2026 President of the ANU Students Association. Charley moved from the Gold Coast in Queensland, to study a Bachelor of Politics, Philosophy, and Economics and a Bachelor of Public Policy and was previously a CAS Hawker Scholar. Previously Charley was the President at Burgmann College, where he sat on the College's Board of Management and several other governing committees. Within ANUSA, Charley has served as the Undergraduate Coursework Officer and a General Representative. Outside of the ANU, Charley is a non-executive director of Inspire Tomorrow Education - a not-for-profit driven towards advancing educational equality.