

ACS

Website

cinematographer.org.au

Company Profile

The Australian Cinematographers Society (ACS)

The ACS is a non-political society of crafts people wishing to further develop their skills through mutual cooperation. Membership is open to all persons involved or associated with the motion picture and television industry. The ACS was established to:

- Further the advancement of cinematography in all fields and give due recognition to the outstanding work performed by Australian cinematographers.
- Keep members abreast of technology, new equipment and ideas through meetings, seminars and demonstrations.
- Provide a forum for cinematographers to meet with other members of the industry to discuss and exchange ideas, promote friendship and better understanding of each others industry role

Industry Category

Film Industry Guild

Brands and Services

- ACS membership and information
- AC Magazine subscription
- ACS merchandise
- ACS social events and awards
- ACS social media
- ACS professional accreditation
- ACS sponsorship opportunities

