

PETER BREGUET

Senior Manager Trade & Market
Access | Grains Australia

Peter Breguet has over 25 years' experience in international trade, market access, regulatory affairs and industry strategy. As a leader within Grains Australia, he works across government and industry to advance science-based market access outcomes, strengthen Australia's global grain reputation and support the long-term success of Australian grain producers.