

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions (effective 14 August 2026) apply to all registrations for the 2026 Australian Infrastructure Summit and/or National Earth Awards Gala, including registrations for the Summit, the Earth Awards Gala Dinner, or both. By completing a registration, each individual agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

1. Definitions

In these Terms and Conditions:

Event refers to the 2026 Australian Infrastructure Summit and/or National Earth Awards Gala, comprising the Summit and the Awards Gala Dinner collectively.

Summit refers to the 2026 Australian Infrastructure Summit program and sessions. Awards refers to the National Earth Awards Gala, a separately ticketed component of the Event.

References to the "Event" throughout these Terms and Conditions apply to both components unless a clause specifically refers to the Summit or Awards Gala Dinner individually.

2. Requirement to register

All individuals who attend the Event are required to officially register via the online registration system.

When registering, the individual accepts all terms and conditions as outlined below.

3. Payment of registration fee:

All registration fees are payable in advance of the Event. Entry may be denied if the registration fee is unpaid prior to commencement.

Credit cards via our secure online registration system is the only method of payment. Any merchant fee is included in the ticket price.

4. Sharing of registration:

Sharing of registrations is not permitted.

Each individual must purchase their own ticket. Tickets cannot be shared or used by multiple people across the event.

5. Postponement, cancellations, change of format and event components:

5.1. Postponement of face-to-face event

If the face-to-face event is postponed by Civil Contractors Federation due to circumstances beyond Civil Contractors Federation's reasonable control (as described in clause 7), attendees will be notified promptly and offered assignment of equivalent registration for the new date.

If the new date is unsuitable, the registration will be refunded in full within 14 business days of the delegate requesting a refund following notification of postponement.

5.2. Cancellation due to delegate change of mind:

Refund requests must be received in writing to ccfnat@con-sol.com and eligibility for a refund will be based on the following criteria:

Cancellations made more than twenty-one (21) days prior to the Event will be refunded less 25% of the registration fee to cover administration costs.

No registration refunds will be made after this date; however, a substitute attendee may be nominated at no charge, up to 7 days prior to the event.

Please note that if a non-members replaces a member, the difference between the member and non-member registration rates will be charged.

Registrations purchased within 21 days of the Event are non-refundable. A substitute attendee may be nominated at no charge, up to 7 days prior to the event.

Please note that if a non-members replaces a member, the difference between the member and non-member registration rates will be charged.

There are no refunds whatsoever in the event an individual registers but fails to attend the Event.

5.3. Change of format - virtual delivery:

If the face-to-face Summit is cancelled and replaced with a virtual format due to circumstances beyond Civil Contractors Federation's reasonable control (as described in clause 7), Civil Contractors Federation will notify all registered delegates promptly.

The virtual Summit will deliver substantially similar program content adapted for online delivery, and registrations will automatically transfer to the virtual format at no additional charge. No refund will be payable in these circumstances.

Delegates who are unable to attend the virtual Summit may nominate a substitute attendee at no charge.

In the event the Summit moves to a virtual format, Civil Contractors Federation will advise delegates holding National Earth Awards Gala Dinner tickets whether the Gala Dinner will proceed as a separate in-person event. Where the Gala Dinner does not proceed, delegates will be entitled to a full refund of the Gala Dinner ticket fee on written request to ccfnat@con-sol.com within 60 days of notification. Refunds will be processed within 14 business days of receipt of a valid request.

5.4. Cancellation by Civil Contractors Federation:

Civil Contractors Federation reserves the right to cancel the Event at any time, including due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control (as described in clause 7)

In the event of cancellation, Civil Contractors Federation will promptly notify all registered delegates.

Delegates will be entitled to a full refund of registration fees paid, less a 25% administration fee per registration to cover non-recoverable payment processing costs, on written request to ccfnat@con-sol.com within 60 days of cancellation notification. Refunds will be processed within 14 business days of receipt of a valid request.

Delegates may also choose to waive their refund in support of Civil Contractors Federation's work. Refunds will not be available after this 60-day period.

Civil Contractors Federation will not be responsible for any indirect or consequential losses, including travel or accommodation costs.

Civil Contractors Federation will not have any further liability to delegates for losses, damage, liability or claim caused directly or indirectly by cancellation of the Event for any reason whatsoever.

Where the National Earth Awards Gala Dinner is cancelled independently of the Summit, delegates holding Gala Dinner tickets will be entitled to a refund of the Gala Dinner ticket fee on the same terms as set out above, less a 25% administration fee per ticket.

6. Program changes

Civil Contractors Federation reserves the right to make reasonable changes to the Event venue, schedule, session format, seating configuration, presenters, delivery platform, or other operational arrangements where necessary for operational, safety, security.

In the unlikely event that a presenter withdraws or cannot travel, Civil Contractors Federation reserves the right to make the appropriate decision in the best interest of the Event. This may include changes to the program and cancelling sessions.

7. Force majeure

Civil Contractors Federation will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligation under these Terms and Conditions, or for any claim, to the extent that such delay or failure is caused, in whole or in part, by an act of God, public health crisis, epidemic or pandemic, war, strike, industrial stoppage or unrest, civil commotion, fire, earthquake, shortage or disruption of suitable labour, materials, equipment, transport, utilities or energy, significant economic disruption, or other circumstances materially affecting the practical delivery or reasonable operation of the Event.

In such circumstances, Civil Contractors Federation will use reasonable endeavours to fulfil its obligations to registered delegates and to resume normal operations as soon as reasonably possible.

8. Photography and video release

By registering for the Event, you give Civil Contractors Federation permission to release your image/s and/or footage from the Event to positively promote and raise awareness of the civil industry and/or the Civil Contractors Federation.

- Civil Contractors Federation may use the images and/or footage in the following ways:
 - In the media to illustrate civil construction and Civil Contractors Federation
 - On Civil Contractors Federation website
 - In Civil Contractors Federation publications and in communication resources including social media to promote civil construction and/or Civil Contractors Federation
 - In Civil Contractors Federation fundraising material
 - Provide to trusted partners of Civil Contractors Federation to promote civil construction

You understand copyright of the images and/or footage belongs to Civil Contractors Federation, and that they will use these images and/or footage responsibly.

If you do not consent to your image being used, please advise in writing to ccfnat@con-sol.com.

9. Loss and injury

All Event attendees are advised to affect their own insurance to cover all risks including (but not limited to) costs of travel, accommodation, event fees, personal property, health and medical expenses, injury, death and all other risks.

Civil Contractors Federation and associated event organisers will not be held liable for any indirect, consequential or special losses incurred by delegates, except to the extent caused by Civil Contractors Federation's negligence or wilful misconduct.

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions excludes, restricts or modifies any consumer guarantee, right or remedy conferred by the Australian Consumer Law or any other applicable law that cannot lawfully be excluded.

10. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws in force in Australian Capital Territory (ACT), Australia. Each registrant submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of ACT in connection with any dispute arising under these Terms and Conditions.

11. Privacy Statement

Australia operates under the Privacy Amendment Act 2012 with significant changes in March 2014. The Civil Contractors Federation Australia complies with such legislation which is designed to protect the rights of the individual to privacy of their information. Information collected in respect of proposed participation in any aspect of the event will be only used for the purposes of planning and conduct of the event.
