

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

As we turn our gaze towards the future, the lens for AEM 2023 is person centredness. The theme “Back on Track” reflects our desire to focus on the core business of delivering high quality critical care with person-centred outcomes at the forefront.

- ▶ A paediatric critical care nurse stream
- ▶ Comprehensive workshop program
- ▶ Dedicated workshops for ICU nurse educators/clinical facilitators in a workshop "Triple Bill"
- ▶ Critical Care Beyond Our Shores
- ▶ ICU Workforce and Workload
- ▶ Complex Patients
- ▶ Professional Development
- ▶ Special Populations
- ▶ What's New in ICU?
- ▶ PLUS Deteriorating patients, ventilation, cardiac and neuro sessions

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Prof Brendan McCormack – Head of the Susan Wakil School of Nursing and Midwifery at University of Sydney

Prof Ruth Kleinpell – Associate Dean of Clinical Scholarship, Vanderbilt University School of Nursing, Nashville, USA

Adj Prof Alison McMillan – Commonwealth Chief Nursing and Midwifery Officer

Prof Julie Considine AO – Deakin University Chair in Nursing at Eastern Health

Prof Ged Williams AO – Chief Nursing Officer and Executive Director of Nursing, Alfred Health Service

REGISTER HERE

VIEW PROGRAM HERE

CONTACT US

www.acccn-aem-2023.com
events@encanta.com.au

DESTINATION
PARTNERS

