The conference organisers reserve the right to cancel or vary any social events for any reason.

Health and Safety

The conference organisers will monitor and consult with government health authorities, the conference venue and clinical advisors to ensure all regulations and health and safety measures are in place at the conference. However, the risk of viral transmissions for a variety of illnesses must be considered by all attendees for their own personal circumstances, including any health condition or vulnerability that they may have, or that of persons they will be in close contact with following attendance at the conference.

Privacy Statement

The Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine ("the College") collects, stores and discloses personal information for the purposes of providing training programs, for research or statistical purposes and to promote services which the College considers may be of interest to the registrant. This information may be collected directly from dealings with the College. To fulfil the purposes set out above, personal information may also be collected from or passed on to external bodies which usually includes medical colleges, government organisations and associated training providers, or as otherwise permitted or required by law.

Insurance

The conference organisers do not take responsibility for attendees failing to insure and strongly recommend attendees ensure they are appropriately covered for relevant insurances, including travel insurance.
