

Libraries as Learning Spaces

Anne Scott

University of Canterbury

Abstract:

Bio:

Anne Scott is the University Librarian, Pou Tuatahi, at University of Canterbury leading the Library and E-Learning Support for the university. Anne has always been interested in access to the information and technologies that support learning, teaching and research. She believes passionately that libraries having a vital role to play in student success by providing welcoming, inclusive, effective learning environments that can make a difference.