

Maintaining the Past

Liz Coulter, Liz Coulter Consulting

Abstract to be provided

Bio:

Liz has over 30 years' experience working in IT with 17 years working in higher education starting at the University of Queensland as an Associate Director and most recently at the University of Auckland where she was the Director, IT Services. While in these roles she had a significant involvement in teaching and learning and actively participated in the Australian and New Zealand IT and eLearning communities. She has been the Chair of the NZ Universities Information and Communications Technology Committee (ICTC), Chair of the REANNZ Advisory Board, a member of the Council of Australian Universities of Directors (CAUDIT) Executive and member of the Executive Committee of the Australian Society for Computers in Learning in Tertiary Education (ascilite). and President of Tuakiri, New Zealand's Access Federation for the NZ research and education sector. She was also the Programme Chair for the 2017 THETA conference and founded a Women in IT providing opportunities for mentoring and inspiration to students and IT professionals in higher education.

Since leaving the university, Liz has undertaken consultancy for education and is currently the Head of Tech Solutions for Business at Noel Leeming Commercial who is on the AOG supplier panel and provides technology solutions for commercial organisations, government and education.