Welcome

On behalf of the New South Wales Hand Surgery Association we are thrilled to invite you to the 2019 Annual Conference. The conference will be held at Peppers Craigieburn, Bowral NSW, Thursday 28 November - Sunday 01 December 2019.

This year we are honoured to have Dr Warren Hammert from the University of Rochester Medical Centre, New York USA as our International Guest Presenter.

The meeting this year promises to have an outstanding and well balanced academic program complemented by an engaging social program. Our meeting enables us the opportunity to share knowledge, research & ideas expanding the field of Hand Surgery.

Additionally, there will be symposia, seminars and invited lectures on a broad range of topics; lively discussion is anticipated & encouraged.

We also have an exciting social program kicking off with the President's Welcome Reception & the Conference Dinner at Peppers Craigieburn.

Plenty of great opportunity for delegates and industry partners to network personally and professionally.

We welcome members and associate members and encourage you all to bring your families to enjoy a short break.

Nick & David

Destination

Bowral, NSW

Bowral is the largest town in the Southern Highlands of New South Wales, about ninety minutes south of Sydney.

It is the main business and entertainment precinct of the Wingecarribee Shire and Highlands. Bowral is noted for its boutiques, antique stores, gourmet restaurants and cafés.

Bowral is also home to the Bradman Oval, Bradman Museum and International Cricket Hall of Fame which are dedicated to the achievements of cricketer Sir Donald Bradman and to the game of cricket.

Liability / Insurance

Registration fees don't include insurance of any kind. Neither NSWHS nor Taylored Images will accept liability for damages of any nature (including financial) sustained by participants, or loss or damage to their personal property in the event of industrial disruptions or natural disasters. It is highly recommended you take out a suitable travel insurance policy including coverage for non refundable registration fees when you register for the meeting and book your travel.

Abstract Submission

(ABSTRACTS WILL ONLY BE ACCEPTED ELECTRONICALLY)

Submission as follows via the

Taylor & Francis website:

www.tandfonline.com

(a) Follow the links to 2019 NSW Hand; click on “Submit Abstract” and follow the prompts

(b) It is essential all photographs and diagrams are embedded within the document, prior to uploading the abstract

(c) On submission, you will be prompted to create an account which will allow you to view & edit your abstract/s after initial submission until 1700 Friday 04 October 2019.

Scientific papers are invited for oral presentations. Authors should submit abstracts written in English to Taylor & Francis no later than 1700 (EST) on Friday 04 October 2019. Papers received after this date will not be accepted for inclusion in this year’s program.

All abstracts submitted are subject to review by the Scientific Program Committee. Once abstracts have been accepted for presentation, no changes will be accepted to their content.

Disclaimer

All speakers/presenters are to disclose any financial involvement or assistance they have received for their paper.

The abstract should provide sufficient information to allow the reader to fully assess the aims, methods, results and implications of the work undertaken. The abstract should include the following sections:

- Introduction - the purpose of the study and a brief overview of relevant literature/current state of research in the field
- Methods - a short explanation of data collection and processing
- Results - presented in the form of text, graphics or tables
- Discussion - major findings and conclusions from the work including implications for further research

It is important that methods and results are clearly defined in the abstract; therefore, general statements such as “results will be presented” are not acceptable.
