Welcome

On behalf of the Queensland Hand Surgery Society we are thrilled to invite you to the 2022 Meeting. The meeting will be held at the Star Gold Coast, QLD, Friday 04 - Sunday 06 November 2022.

This year we are honoured to have Dr Sanj Kakar - USA, as our International Guest Presenter.

The meeting promises to have an outstanding and well balanced academic program complemented by an engaging social program. Our meeting enables us the opportunity to share knowledge, research & ideas expanding the field of Hand Surgery.

Additionally, there will be symposia, seminars and invited lectures on a broad range of topics; lively discussion is anticipated & encouraged.

We also have an exciting social program kicking off with the Welcome Reception at the Star Gold Coast & the Conference Dinner at Miss Moneypennys.

Plenty of opportunity for delegates and industry partners to network personally and professionally.

We welcome members and associate members and encourage you all to bring your families to enjoy a short break.

International Guest Presenter

Sanj Kakar, MD is Professor of Orthopaedics, past Vice Chair of the Clinical Practice Committee within the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Associate Medical Director for the Quality Academy and serves as the Medical Director for the Digital Platform within Continuous Professional Development at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota and a graduate of St. Bartholomew's and The Royal London School of Medicine and Dentistry, he received his surgical training at University College London, The Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital and The Royal Free, before completing his Orthopaedic Residency at Boston University, Boston. He completed his Hand Surgery fellowship at Mayo Clinic and is Board Certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and the American Society for Surgery of the Hand.

Dr. Kakar is a specialist in disorders of the hand and wrist, in particular, arthroscopy, complex wrist reconstruction, trauma and sports injuries. He is a surgeon scientist and is Principal Investigator studying the role of four-dimensional CT scanning on wrist kinematics. Dr Kakar received the Marshall Urist Young Investigator award from the Association of Bone and Joint Surgeons, and has authored over 220 peer reviewed scientific papers, 45 book chapters and co-editor of four orthopaedic textbooks in the Hand and Wrist. He currently serves as the Editor of Hand.e, the Digital Education Platform of the American Society for Surgery of The Hand and is the President of the Minnesota Orthopaedic Society.

Dr. Jeremy Loveridge is an internationally trained Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon and specialist in hand, wrist and elbow surgery, including microsurgery. Working with, and being mentored by internationally respected hand, wrist and elbow surgeons, Dr. Loveridge was awarded his Fellowship in Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgery from the Royal College of Surgeons of England in 2010. He came to Australia in 2011 to undertake further sub-specialty training at Perth Orthopaedic and Sports Medicine Centre and subsequently completing a year's Fellowship in Hand and Upper Limb Surgery, including Microsurgery, at the prestigious Brisbane Hand and Upper Limb Research Institute. Dr. Loveridge was invited to Cairns to set up a specialist hand clinic and had initially planned to return to the UK, but decided to stay in Cairns where he currently runs the hand unit and actively trains junior surgeons along with teaching medical students and the Cairns Hospital.

Abstract Submissions

(ABSTRACTS WILL ONLY BE ACCEPTED ELECTRONICALLY)

Submission as follows via the

Taylor & Francis website:

www.taylorandfrancis.com.au

(a) Follow the links to 2022 QLD Hand; click on “Submit Abstract” and follow the prompts

(b) It is essential all photographs and diagrams are embedded within the document, prior to uploading the abstract

(c) On submission, you will be prompted to create an account which will allow you to view & edit your abstract/s after initial submission until 1700 Friday 16 September 2022.
