

Toxic Issues in the ED 2025

What is this?

....a 2-day, state of the art, educational course exploring key topics in the management of acute-poisoning in an Australasian context....

boring lectures?

...no...interactive group talks ....hands on simulation ....a teaching faculty of practising Clinical Toxicologists and Poisons Information specialists .... when you call the poisons centre to discuss a complex poisoning..... these are the experts you speak to.....

Ok, content?

Topics include.... but not limited to ...

complex cardiotoxic exposures
acid base in poisoning
evidence based approach to snakebite and envenoming
Toxic ECG essentials
managing the intoxicated, behaviourally disturbed patient... all you need to know

When and where?

21st/22nd November 2025
Grand Mercure Hotel, Gold Coast, Queensland, Australia

Who should attend?

Emergency physicians, Emergency medicine trainees, medical specialists/trainees in other critical care disciplines, registered nurses/nurse practitioners, pharmacists and paramedics.

Tell me more !!

Of course !! for detailed programme, registration costs and more information
click here

