TTLC 2025 Abstract Submission Guidelines

Presentation Types

- Oral Presentation (a maximum of five oral presentations will be selected, if you are not comfortable providing an oral presentation, please only select poster presentation during submission)
- Poster Presentation

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Only abstract submissions presented by Fellows, Residents & Junior Faculty within two years of completing your final training (i.e. fellowship, post-doc, etc.) and from North America (Canada, USA) will be accepted. These fellowship, residence or faculty status restrictions only apply to the lead author/presenter, more senior faculty and pharma company employees may be included as co-authors.

- Research work should be original and innovative. Work can be presented prior to the IASLC 2025 Targeted Therapies of Lung Cancer Meeting but MUST include new information/data.
- Abstract titles must not exceed 75 words in length.
- Abstracts must not exceed 500 words in length (not including title and authors).
- Tables may be included, and each will count as 100 words.
- A maximum of two images may be included; each will count as 100 words.
- Tables, images and graphs must be uploaded in GIF, JPEG, JPG or PNG format at 300 dpi and 100% size. Any higher resolution is acceptable.
- Abstracts must be structured with the following headings:
  - Background
  - Methods
  - Results
  - Conclusion
- Please add the above headings (Background, Methods, Results, Conclusion) to each section of your abstract body.
- Abstracts will be accepted in English only
- There is no fee for submitting an abstract
- There is no limit to the number of abstracts you may submit (however an individual may not be offered more than one poster or oral presentation)
- All Abstracts accepted by the Scientific Program Committee will be published in the official meeting program book and on the conference website prior to the meeting and it is mandatory to agree to this at the time of submission

Title and Presentation Type
- The abstract title must not exceed 75 words in length.
- Please note your preferred presentation format. If you would not be comfortable giving an oral presentation, please select Poster Only.
  NOTE: Selecting Poster/Oral does not guarantee you will be assigned an oral abstract presentation upon acceptance; the final presentation type is determined by the Scientific Program Committee

Author Details
- Please enter the authors and affiliations of the abstract at the top of the abstract
- There is no limit to the number of co-authors per abstract
- There is a limit of one presenting author per abstract
- If more than two authors are listed, please select who the presenting author is.
- The presenting author of an accepted abstract must be registered by January 17, 2025
- Should a presenting author not be registered by the deadline the abstract may be removed from the program.

Preview & Submit
- Please proofread your submission prior to submitting
- Once an abstract is submitted it cannot be deleted, modified or corrected in the system after submission. All submitted abstracts will be published exactly as submitted.
- Any abstracts in "Draft" status after the submission deadline has passed will not be considered for review. It is the abstract submitters responsibility to ensure that all abstracts you wish to be reviewed have been properly submitted.
- Should you need to withdraw a submitted abstract, please contact meetings@iaslc.org. Please include the abstract number and abstract title in your email.
- Please carefully review the affiliation of all your co-authors as this is how it will appear in the on the conference website.
- You will be asked to review and agree to the abstract submission terms & conditions prior to submitting your abstract. Please read the information carefully.

For inquiries, please contact meetings@iaslc.org. If your inquiry is regarding a particular draft or submission, please include the abstract number and title in your email.

Plagiarism Policy Definition

Plagiarism encompasses all of the following:

1. Direct: intentionally submitting another person's words or ideas verbatim as one's own;

2. Self-plagiarism: submitting work that has been previously published or presented;

3. Mosaic plagiarism: stringing together portions of text from other sources;

4. Lack of attribution: failing to appropriately identify and cite sources for language or ideas that are incorporated.

For more information see: Das N, Panjabi M. Plagiarism: Why is it such a big issue for medical writers? Perspect Clin Res. 2011;2(2):67–71. doi:10.4103/2229-3485.80370
https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC3121267/

Screening: IASLC screens all abstracts using anti-plagiarism software. Abstracts identified as having high levels of plagiarized content will be evaluated by IASLC staff and appropriate actions taken. Penalties for plagiarism may include: Rejection of abstract, and/or author(s) banned from making presentations at IASLC conferences.

For inquiries, please contact meetings@iaslc.org