

Getting to the Conference Dinner

Directly in front of the Prague Congress Centre is the Vyšehrad metro station. Take the metro Line C (red line) 3 stops in the direction towards "Letňany", and exit at Hlavní Nádraží.

From Hlavní Nádraží it is approximately a 10-minute walk to the restaurant, Červený Jelen (the Red Stag).

Exit the Hlavní Nádraží station, cross the park (Vrchlického sady) and follow the Opletalova street to the right until the end.

Turn left on the Hybernská street. Soon you will see the Červený Jelen restaurant on your right.

Tips for the Metro

You need a 30-min public transport ticket, 30 CZK, each way (2 tickets).

Paper tickets are sold at the airport, newsstands and metro stations. Purchase upon arrival to Prague, and activate during the week as needed. 24-hour and 72-hour passes are also available, and very convenient!

Digital tickets can be purchased through the app with Google Pay / Apple Pay.

Purchase your ticket in advance, but do not activate it until you're ready to start your 30-min trip.

Avoid lines at the metro station credit card machine!

Metro service runs until 12 midnight.

In case you get lost or need to return home later in the night, ride-share apps like Uber or Bolt work well in Prague and the rides are low cost.

Note: Bolt tends to have more drivers, you will probably find a ride faster with Bolt than Uber.
