

Civil Nuclear Energy Workshop: Partnering for Implementation

OCTOBER 8-9, 2024 | KNOXVILLE, TN

Emiliya Taneva

Commercial Advisor

U.S. Commercial Service

For the past 25 years, Emiliya Taneva - employee of the US Embassy - advises and consults American companies, assisting them in planning, organizing and developing strategies regarding the Bulgarian market. As a civil servant of the Department of Commerce, Ms. Taneva's goals and tasks are the promotion of American products and services on the Bulgarian market, protecting the interests of US companies, preparing marketing analyzes and market reports for US companies, researching possible partners, agents , distributors and representatives for US companies, supporting the efforts of US companies to enter the local and regional market, as well as their participation in auctions, trade events, fairs and workshops.

The focus of Ms. Taneva's work are the sectors of the economy that are of particular interest to American companies, such as: energy, construction, infrastructure.

Organization Overview:

The United States Commercial Service is an agency of the International Trade Administration under the United States Department of Commerce that assists United States businesses with exports and sales in foreign markets. Commercial Officers in the Commercial Service are Foreign Service officers in the United States Foreign Service.

Delegate Interests:

SMR developer BWXT Technologies will build the first advanced nuclear microreactor in the US; High-temperature molten salt reactors to provide competitive, reliable, and responsible nuclear energy.

Topics / subjects the delegate wishes to be included in the Workshop and site visits :
Safety standards and concerns; nuclear fuel - types and concerns.