Ketan Shah

Managing Partner

Grant Thornton

Ketan Shah is a highly experienced leader with over 20 years of expertise across East Africa. As Managing Partner of Grant Thornton Tanzania, he leads the Transactional Advisory division, with a particular focus on infrastructure consulting, providing strategic solutions across multiple sectors. Ketan has extensive experience in transaction advisory services, particularly in project preparation at both national and local government levels, working closely with development financial institutions such as the World Bank, as well as public and private sector entities. He is adept at assessing project viability and fostering collaboration between public and private stakeholders to drive successful outcomes. Outside of his role at Grant Thornton, Ketan is a founding member and Chairman of the Africa Transformation Initiative, an NGO committed to sustainable development and community empowerment. He also serves as a trustee for the Empowering Farmers Foundation, which supports projects aimed at enhancing farmers' livelihoods and promoting sustainable agricultural practices. Prior to joining Grant Thornton, Ketan was a partner at a Big Four firm, where he specialized in advisory services and corporate finance for infrastructure projects. He holds a Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Economics from City University and is a Fellow of the Chartered Certified Accountants (FCCA)
