

HORNBILL
TREKS & SAFARIS

WHERE

Uganda & Rwanda

Hornbill Treks and Safaris is based in Kampala and offers a wide range of safaris across Uganda and Rwanda. They also operate a satellite office in the US.

WHAT

Authentic safaris

Hornbill curates transformative journeys with expert guides that immerse FIT and group travelers in the heart of the destination. The company takes pride in its mission to not only provide unforgettable travel experiences, but also to champion local communities and protect the remarkable wildlife of the region.

WHY

Sustainable & ethical

At the heart of every meticulously crafted Hornbill safari lies an unwavering commitment to sustainability and ethical tourism. Travelers benefit from deep-rooted local partnerships and authentic and rewarding community-based cultural encounters.

WHEN

Since 2017

Hornbill Treks and Safaris have established a dynamic and dedicated team with decades of experience in African Travel. They maintain a cheerful attention to detail, an everlasting sense of adventure and deliver a consistently exceptional, personalized service.

WHO

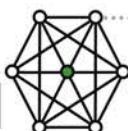

Andrew Wegoye

Born and raised in Uganda, Andrew Wegoye has been curating travel experiences in East Africa since 2008, when he first organized service trips for international volunteers. After meeting his American wife, Elizabeth, on one of her volunteer trips to Uganda, the pair went on to found Hornbill, with a focus on providing safaris that support local communities and conservation efforts in the region.
