VTE Together 2026

About the Conference:

- International multidisciplinary meeting focused on the prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and long-term management of venous thromboembolism (VTE).
- Educational programme delivering the latest evidence, clinical trial updates, translational science, case-based discussions, and patient perspectives.
- Key topics include: cancer-associated thrombosis, pulmonary embolism survivorship, long-term anticoagulation, thrombosis across the reproductive life course, AI and handheld diagnostic technologies, and patient-centred care.
- Featured content: updates from major clinical trials (INVENT, COBRRA, RENOVE, PARTUM) and the launch of the Lancet Haematology Commission.
- Strong multidisciplinary focus, bringing together specialists from haematology, vascular medicine, oncology, emergency medicine, radiology, surgery, obstetrics, intensive care, acute medicine, nursing, psychology, and primary care.
- Expected attendance: 350–400 delegates, including multidisciplinary physicians and approximately 15% specialist nurses.
- Objective: to foster collaboration between international experts and frontline clinicians, translating emerging evidence into safer, more effective VTE care pathways and improved long-term patient outcomes.
