

(DCC) is an essential part of the stabilisation process for newborns on delivery^{1,2} cal placental transfusion^{1,2} intraventricular haemorrhage (IVH)^{1,2}, necrotising enterocolitis³, reduction in blood transfusion^{1,2}, m for at least 1 minute from the complete delivery of stable term and preterm infants olley, a portable bed side resuscitaire⁶, the rate of DCC for premature infants will improve d documentation of DCC in preterm infants born >26/40 and <33+6/40, by using the “LifeStart” troll on and stabilisation of infants with an intact umbilical cord at delivery initiative with retrospective electronic chart review n October 2021 to July 2023 infants born >26/40 and <33+6/40 gestations

Results: Using the “LifeS DCC rose from

