

IVEC 2025

26th International Vacuum Electronics Conference

Mini Course: 14 April

IVEC 2025: 15-17 April

Sponsorship/Exhibition Opportunities

IVEC 2025 aims at being an international forum of information and technical discussion between the various players in the field of vacuum electronics: designers, researchers, young and experienced engineers, scientists, device users, manufacturers, operators, government/institutions, academics and students. The conference is a unique place for the exchange of scientific and technical information and has the goal of fostering collaboration and cooperation in the vacuum electronics domain both at European and worldwide level. For this 26th edition, the conference will take place at the Hilton Hotel in Rotterdam.

IVEC 2025 will offer 3 full days of opportunities to:

- Attend plenary sessions
- Present and listen to technical presentations selected by the technical committee
- Discover other exhibitor companies in the exhibitor area where they are presenting their know-how and innovation, spotlight their technical results and current research
- Experience many opportunities to meet and network with other participants during the social programme events

IVEC 2025 will be an outstanding opportunity to profile and advertise your company's activities and expertise in the field of vacuum electronics to the conference's wide range of international attendants. As a member of the highly specialized vacuum electronics sector, or a sector influenced by developments and changes in the vacuum electronics field, we are happy to offer you the opportunity to actively participate in this important event by becoming an exhibitor or a sponsor. Why sponsor or exhibit at IVEC 2025?

Using one of the various suggested sponsorship packages will give you an excellent opportunity to advertise your company at this widely reputed conference.

Upon request, the organizing committee can offer special sponsorship packages tailored to your company's individual requirements, such as coffee break sponsor, breakfast sponsor, goodie bag sponsor, etc..

During the 3-day event, participants and speakers will present all the plenaries and technical talks in the various rooms of the conference area (see floorplan of the Rotterdam Hotel). The exhibition area will be located in the upper lobby. Its central location will ensure a steady stream of visitors when the participants move between the different rooms. Additionally, the coffee breaks will be held as well in the first-floor lobby and draw the participants to the exhibition booths as well.

Becoming a sponsor/ exhibitor at IVEC 2025 will enable you to

- Present your company's image to the audience of a quality international event in the field of vacuum electronics
- Highlight your company's focus on bringing innovative solutions to the market
- Showcase your latest products and innovations
- Get in contact with potential clients or partners at your booth and during the social events
- Obtain the post event statistics report
