Banks and Building Societies may not accept Direct Debit Instructions for some types of account

This guarantee should be detached and retained by the payer

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all Banks and Building Societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, the British Society for Surgery of the Hand will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited, or as otherwise agreed. If you request the British Society for Surgery of the Hand to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct debit by the British Society for Surgery of the Hand or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when the British Society for Surgery of the Hand asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
