

Travel

The Pope Building on the University of Nottingham campus is located at the: University Park, Nottingham, NG7 2RD. View location map here.

Getting there by Train

The nearest train station is Beeston Station, approximately 1.7 miles from the Campus which is a 20-40 minutes walk or an 8 minute taxi ride.

Getting there by Bus

There is a bus stop within 150 metres of the campus. There are several bus services which run through the University Park Campus. These include St Peter's Court Shuttle, 34C, 34, N34 Night Service and 36U. Bus stops can be found in East Drive, Portland Hill, Library Road and Beeston Lane. The South Entrance can also be accessed via buses that serve University Boulevard via the Skylink Nottingham service, the 18 and Indigo Service. The stop is known as South Entrance (Stop UN04).

Getting there by Tram

The nearest tram stop is University of Nottingham. Nottingham Express Transit's (NET) tram service links University Park Campus directly to Nottingham city centre - including Nottingham Train Station. Line Three of the tram service includes two stops on University Boulevard - at the South Entrance to University Park, as well as adjacent to the Highfields Sports Ground. The nearest Tram Stop to the South Entrance is the University of Nottingham stop.

Getting there by Car

For the Sat Nav please use NG7 2RD.

The campus is located 2 miles to the west of Nottingham City Centre. It can be accessed from the north or south via the M1 and the A52.

University Park is the University of Nottingham's largest campus and there are 3 entrances onto the site: North Entrance, South Entrance and West Entrance.

The South Entrance is accessed off the A6005 (University Boulevard), which leads off the A52 (Clifton Boulevard).

The North Entrance is accessed from the westbound A52 (Derby Road), the South Entrance from the A6005 (University Boulevard) and the West Entrance from the A6464 (Woodside Road).