

Consent to participate in remotely monitored online examinations and to the transfer of personal data by CIRSE Society

Upon your consent, CIRSE Neutorgasse 9, A-1010 Vienna, ("CIRSE Society") offers you the opportunity to take part in remotely monitored online examinations, where CIRSE Society records your voice, video as well as photos and collects your first name, last name, email-address, ID photos (prepared by you), screenshots, webcam photos, webcam video streams and, if applicable, smartphone video streams with the assistance of Maxinity Software Ltd. 2020, Hyland Mews, 21 High Street, Clifton, Bristol BS8 2YF ("Maxinity"), a processor appointed by CIRSE, to analyse these records upon request. The data recorded and collected qualifies as personal data according to Article 4 Nr 1 GDPR.

1. Description of the measures and purpose of data processing

The purpose of Online Proctoring (OP) is to monitor the online EBIR examination process. The collection of voice, video and photo recordings (data) throughout the EBIR examination process enables Maxinity Software Ltd. to visually observe the identification of the candidate and to ensure that academic integrity is maintained.

The OP collects and stores your first name, last name, email-address, ID photos (prepared by you), screenshots, webcam photos, webcam video streams and, if applicable, smartphone video streams are digitally captured, stored and processed during the OP to fulfill the main purpose of the OP (see above).

Before starting the OP process, you will be asked to prove your identity. The display of ID information (especially a passport photo) is required by law. Be aware that you are responsible for covering all unnecessary data (e.g. health or social security numbers) before taking a photograph.

The records will be stored on the servers of Maxinity, based in the United Kingdom, until it has been confirmed that the exam has been conducted properly. If irregularities occur or there is a suspicion of misuse, the records are transferred to a secure location on one of the institutionally approved storage media for personal data. The Examination Office and the Examination Board alone have access to this data to verify if the examination rules have been followed.

2. Consent

I hereby consent

- (i) to the collection of my personal data (first name, last name, email-address, data in the form of ID photos, screenshots, webcam photos, webcam video streams) for the purpose of monitoring the online EBIR examination process by CIRSE via its processor Maxinity; and
- (ii) to the transmission of my personal data (first name, last name, email-address, data in the form of ID photos, screenshots, webcam photos, webcam video streams) to the processor Maxinity, based in the United Kingdom, which is appointed by CIRSE for the purpose of monitoring the online EBIR examination process.

I can withdraw this consent at any time to CIRSE Society as Controller. The withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of my valid consent until the withdrawal.

The data protection information in accordance with Art 13 GDPR can be found under <https://www.cirse.org/data-protection/>.
