

Essentials in Haematology

Saturday 18 April, Liverpool

This one-day haematology education course offers the latest updates in haematology content and engaging, small case-based interprofessional learning sessions.

Designed for medical students, resident doctors, biomedical and clinical scientists, PAs, CNSs, ANPs and pharmacists, and any other interested allied health professionals,

10:00	Registration and tea and coffee
10:30	Welcome
10:45	Interpreting the full blood count – Linda Barton
11:05	Interpreting the coagulation screen – Angharad Everden
11:25	Small group teaching – coagulation case
12:25	Lunch
13:25	Haemato-oncology overview - Sapna Ladani and Rachel Fiskien
14:10	Small group teaching – haemato-oncology case
15:10	Break
15:30	Haemolytic anaemia & sickle cell disease – Paula Glancy
16:10	Small group teaching – red cell case
17:10	Haematological emergencies – Michelle Lannon
17:40	Meeting close