

Dr Henra Muller

Dr Henra Muller obtained a doctorate in Radiographic Sciences in 2022 at the University of the Free State. At the Central University of Technology, Free State, she obtained a National Diploma (Diagnostic Radiography) in 1998, a Baccalaureus Technologiae in 2000, and a Master's degree in 2015. She also obtained a European Federation of Radiographers (EFRS) Diploma in Radiography in Medical Imaging in Vienna, Austria (2019). She started her career in the Department of Radiology, Universitas Academic Hospital, in 1998 and worked as a chief radiographer and radiation control officer until early 2017. She has extensive experience in clinical practice, CT, magnetic resonance imaging and angiography. Since 2017, she has lectured in Radiography at the Central University of Technology. The focus of her research is to study CT image quality parameters. She has published her research in accredited international journals and has presented her work at several national and international conferences.

Current position/ employment:

Senior Lecturer Radiography Programme, Department of Clinical Sciences, Central University of Technology, Free State.

Professional Registration and Membership:

Society of Radiographers South Africa (SORSA)

European Federation of Radiographers (EFRS)

