

Dr Erick Mbuguje

Tanzania

---

Erick Michael Mbuguje, MD is an Interventional Radiologist and Head of section at Muhimbili National Hospital, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania.

He obtained his medical Doctor (MD), Masters of Medicine (Radiology) and Master of Science Super specialization in Interventional Radiology degrees from the Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS) in 2011, 2019 and 2021 respectively.

A member of the Medical Council of Tanganyika (MCT), the Medical Radiology and Imaging Professional Council (MRIPC), a trainee member of the Society of Interventional Radiology (SIR), and represent Tanzania in the Society of African Interventional Radiology and Endovascular Therapy (SAFIRE).

He is a co-founder of Road2IR foundation which participated in the establishment of the first Interventional Radiology training programs in East Africa. This was made possible through the Road2IR consortium by close collaboration of MNH, MUHAS, Yale, Emory, and other institutions from the United States and Canada.

He is a co-founder of the Tanzania Liver Cancer group which also organized the First Liver Cancer Conference in Tanzania in March 2023. He is also a member of the National Hospital Multidisciplinary Liver Cancer Tumor Board.

He is passionate about establishing IR services in Sub-Saharan Africa with more interest in interventional oncology especially liver intervention and venous work.

Related Programmes

Road2IR foundation

Tanzania Liver Cancer Group