Dr Mishkah Petersen

Born and raised in the beautiful mother city of Cape Town, South Africa.

I completed my undergraduate Medical degree (MBChB) at the University of Cape Town in 2012. Thereafter, I spent nearly 3 years as a Medical officer in the department of Neonatology, with a special interest in the well-being of premature infants.

I am currently a third year Paediatric Medical Registrar at the Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital, based in Cape Town.

My MMed, via the University of Cape Town, involves looking at the potential adverse events post 6-week immunization, of all in - patient premature infants, at Mowbray Maternity Hospital
