

Prof Leonie Scholtz

Pretoria, South Africa

Prof Leonie Scholtz

1974 Matriculated Afrikaanse Hoër Meisieskool, Pretoria

1980 MBChB, University of Pretoria

1983-4 Post graduate training in Echocardiography and Cardiac Interventional Procedures at the Department of Cardiac Radiology at the Stanford University School of Medicine.

1987 MMedRad D (Diagnostic), University of Pretoria

1993 Started her own private practice at the Pretoria Heart Hospital, which has expanded and now operates from multiple large hospitals and tele-radiology sites in Gauteng, Limpopo, Mpumalanga and Northern Cape

2002-5 Professor and Head of Department of Diagnostic Radiology and Nuclear Imaging, University of Pretoria

Served on the Exco and was Vice-President of RSSA for many years

Served on the Committee of the Interventional Society of South Africa for many years.

Invited as speaker at various international and national radiology, interventional and vascular surgery meetings

Published papers on Interventional Radiology, Contrast Media, CMR and General Radiology.

The Interventional Team, in which she played a key part, has performed many "first ever procedures" in the RSA.

Currently full time in private practice with special interest in Cardiovascular Imaging

2011- Appointed Professor Extraordinaire Department of Diagnostic Radiology University of Pretoria where she collaborates with the Departments of Radiology, Cardiology, Thoracic Surgery and Nuclear Medicine

Chairperson SASOCI (SA Society of Cardiac Imaging)

2019 PhD in CMR