

Prof Brian Allwood

South Africa

Prof Brian Allwood has been instrumental in establishing the Pulmonary Hypertension & CTEPH Service after completing a Fellowship in Pulmonary Hypertension at Massachusetts's General Hospital/Harvard, USA. He heads the Interstitial Lung Disease Service and established the first Post-Tuberculosis Lung Disease Clinic in the world. He has achieved international acclaim for his body of work in this field which continues to evolve. Prof Allwood has served on the SATS council for several years
